Hello,

Dear Hiring Team,

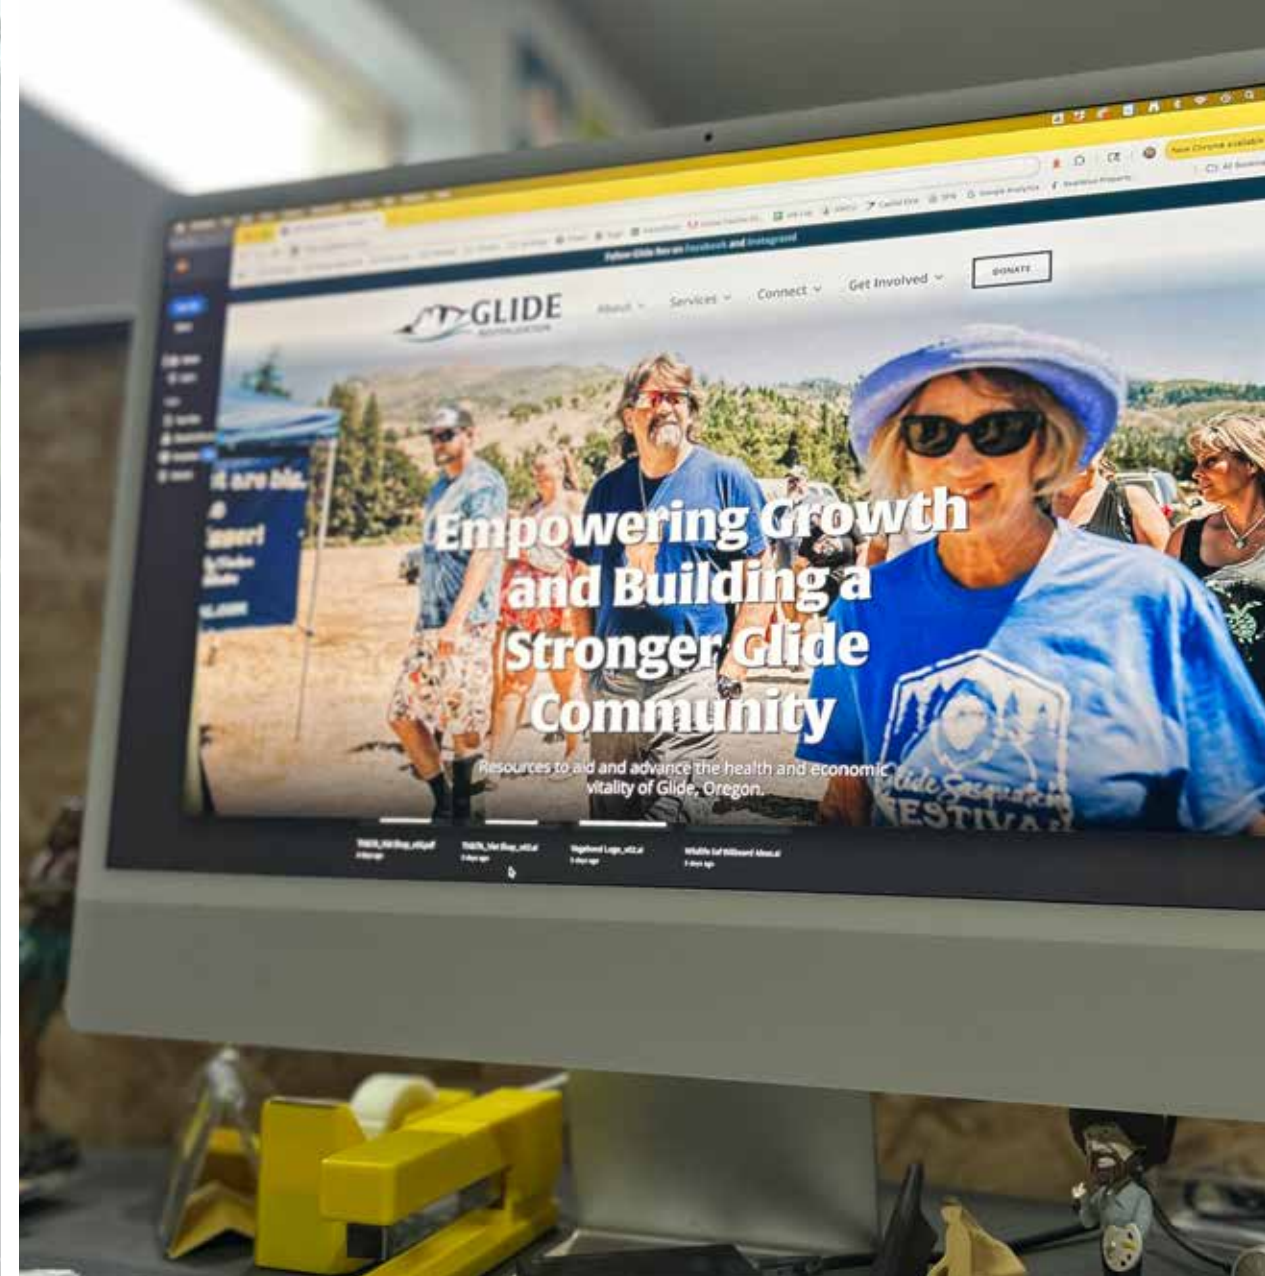

As the owner and Creative Lead of Seven13 Design Co., I have led projects from concept through execution for organizations ranging from local businesses to regional brands. My work spans branding, website design, marketing campaigns, packaging, environmental graphics, social media content, and print collateral. Throughout my career, I have collaborated closely with clients, marketing teams, vendors, and stakeholders to transform business objectives into creative solutions that are both strategically effective and visually compelling.

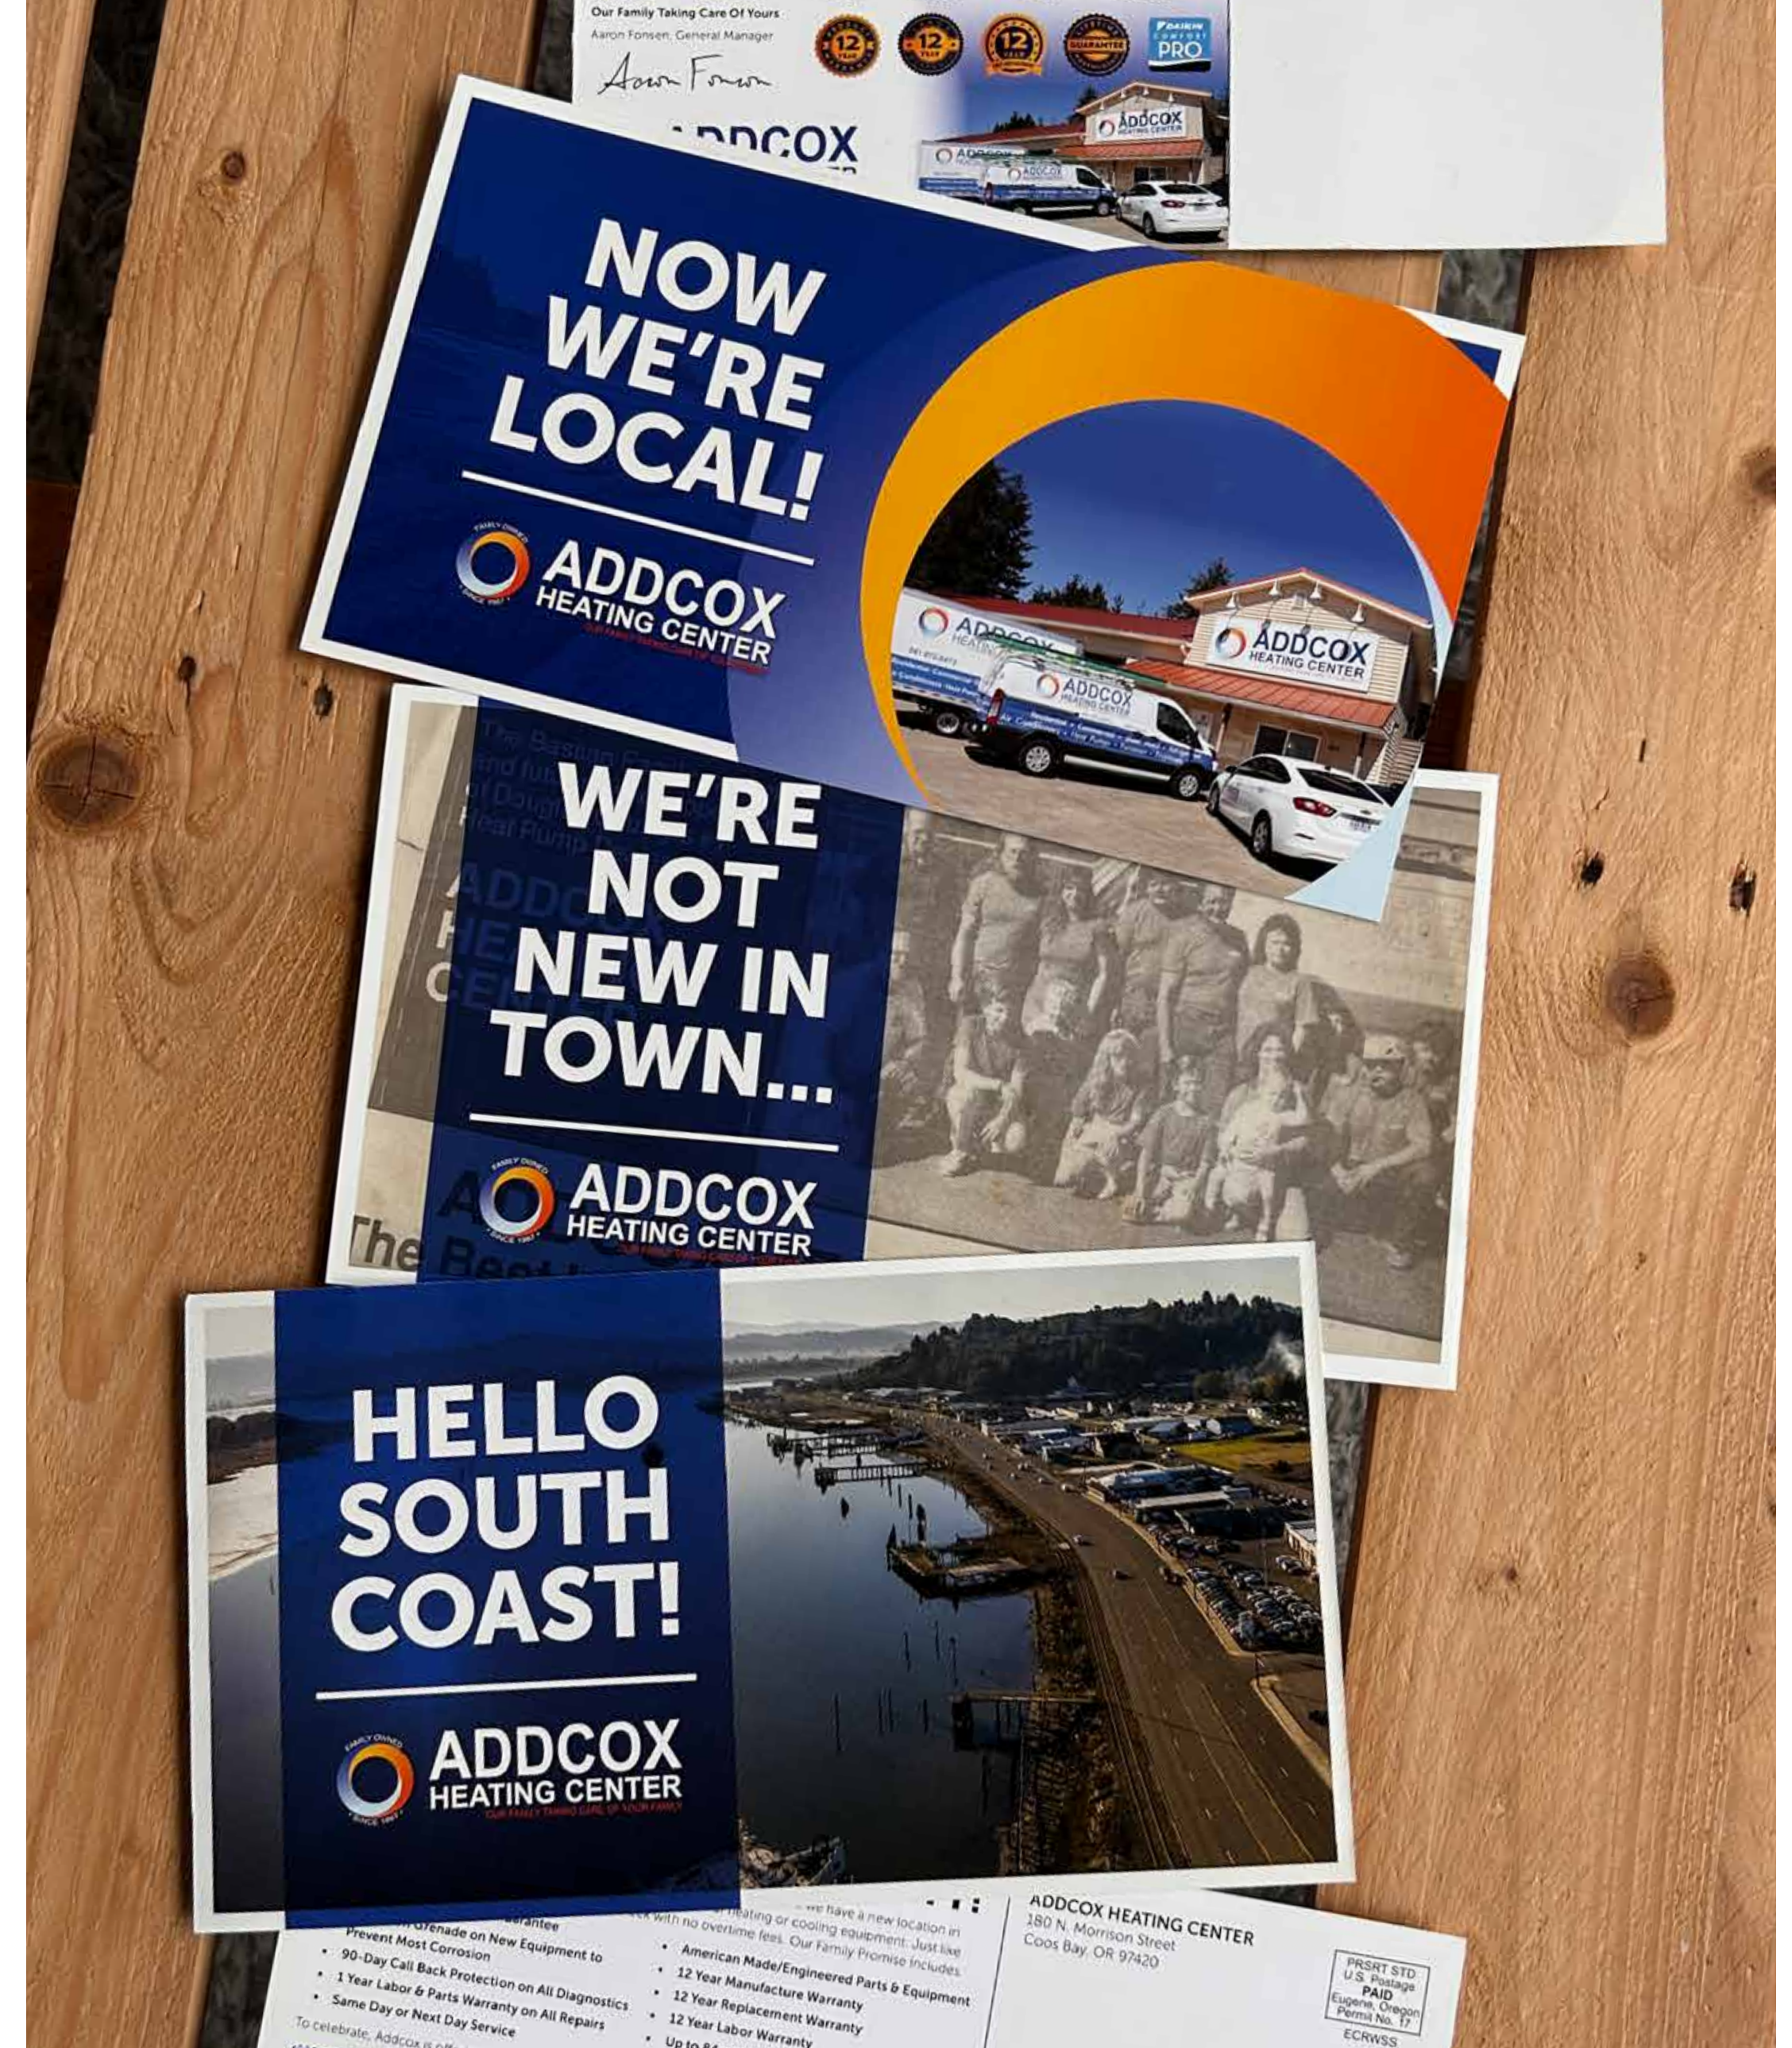

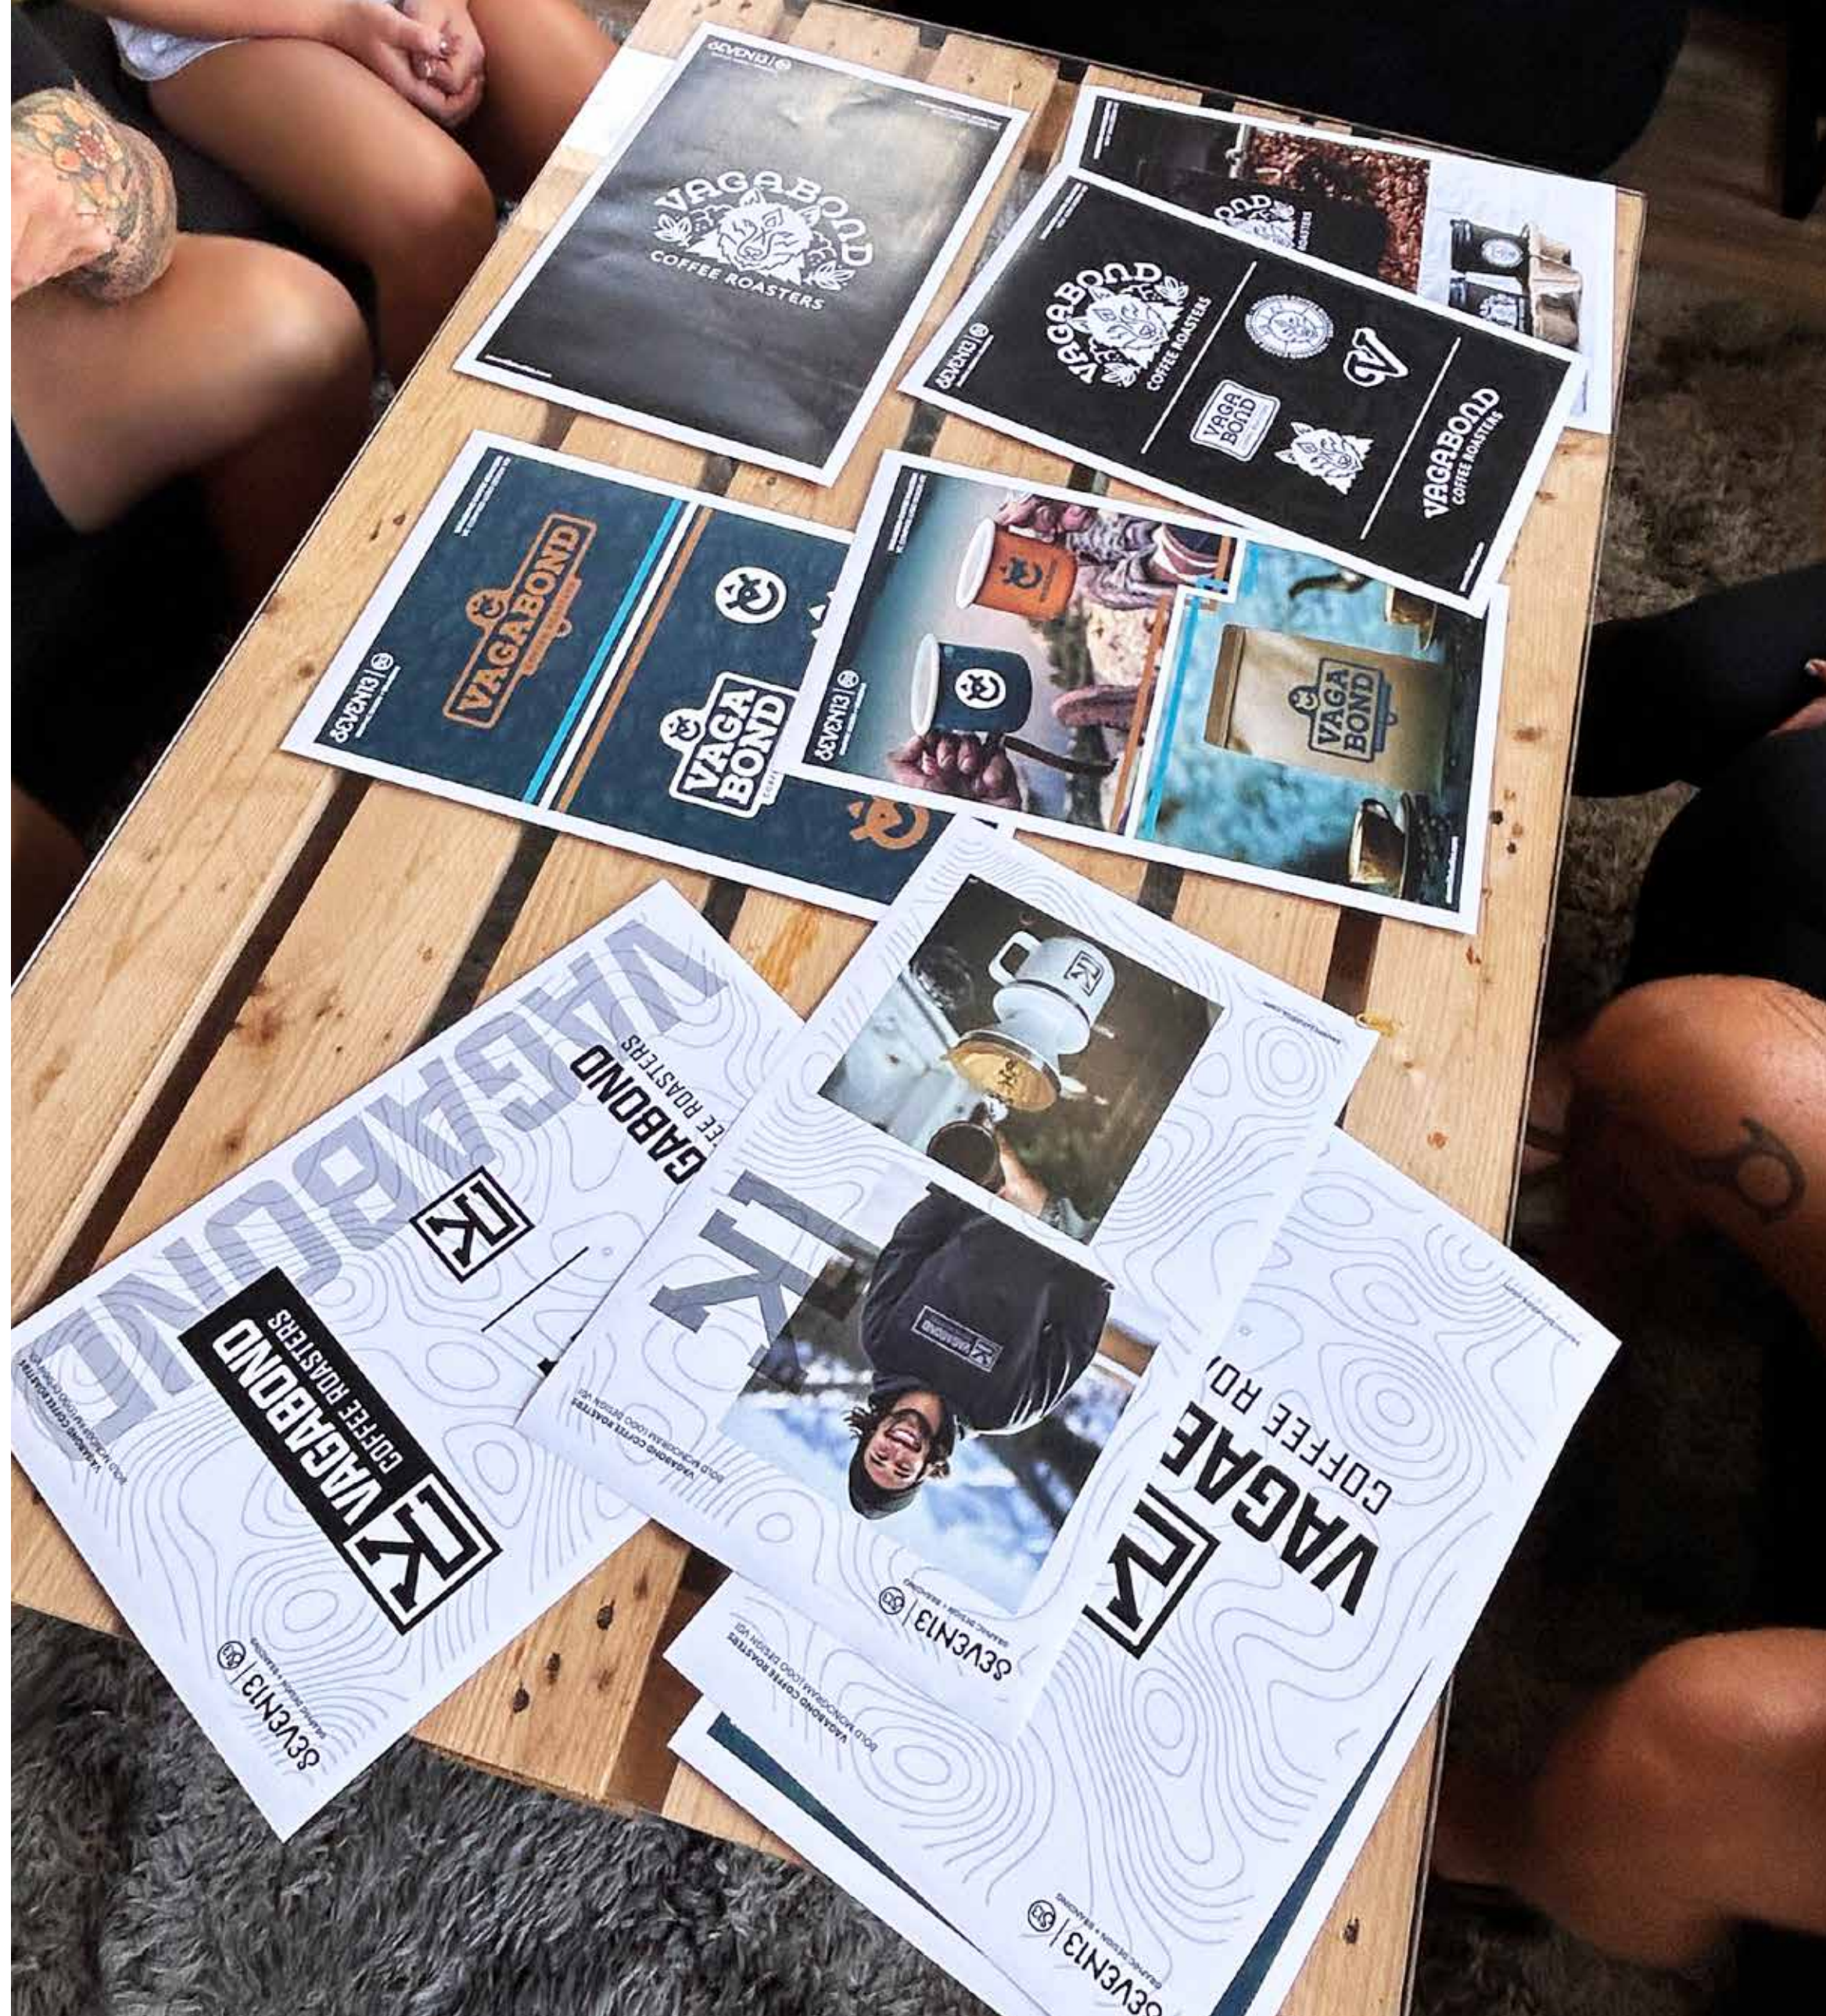

Thank you for looking over some my design work. Please visit my websites – designismymiddle.name and seven13studios.com. I look forward to discussing how my background and creative perspective can contribute to your continued success.

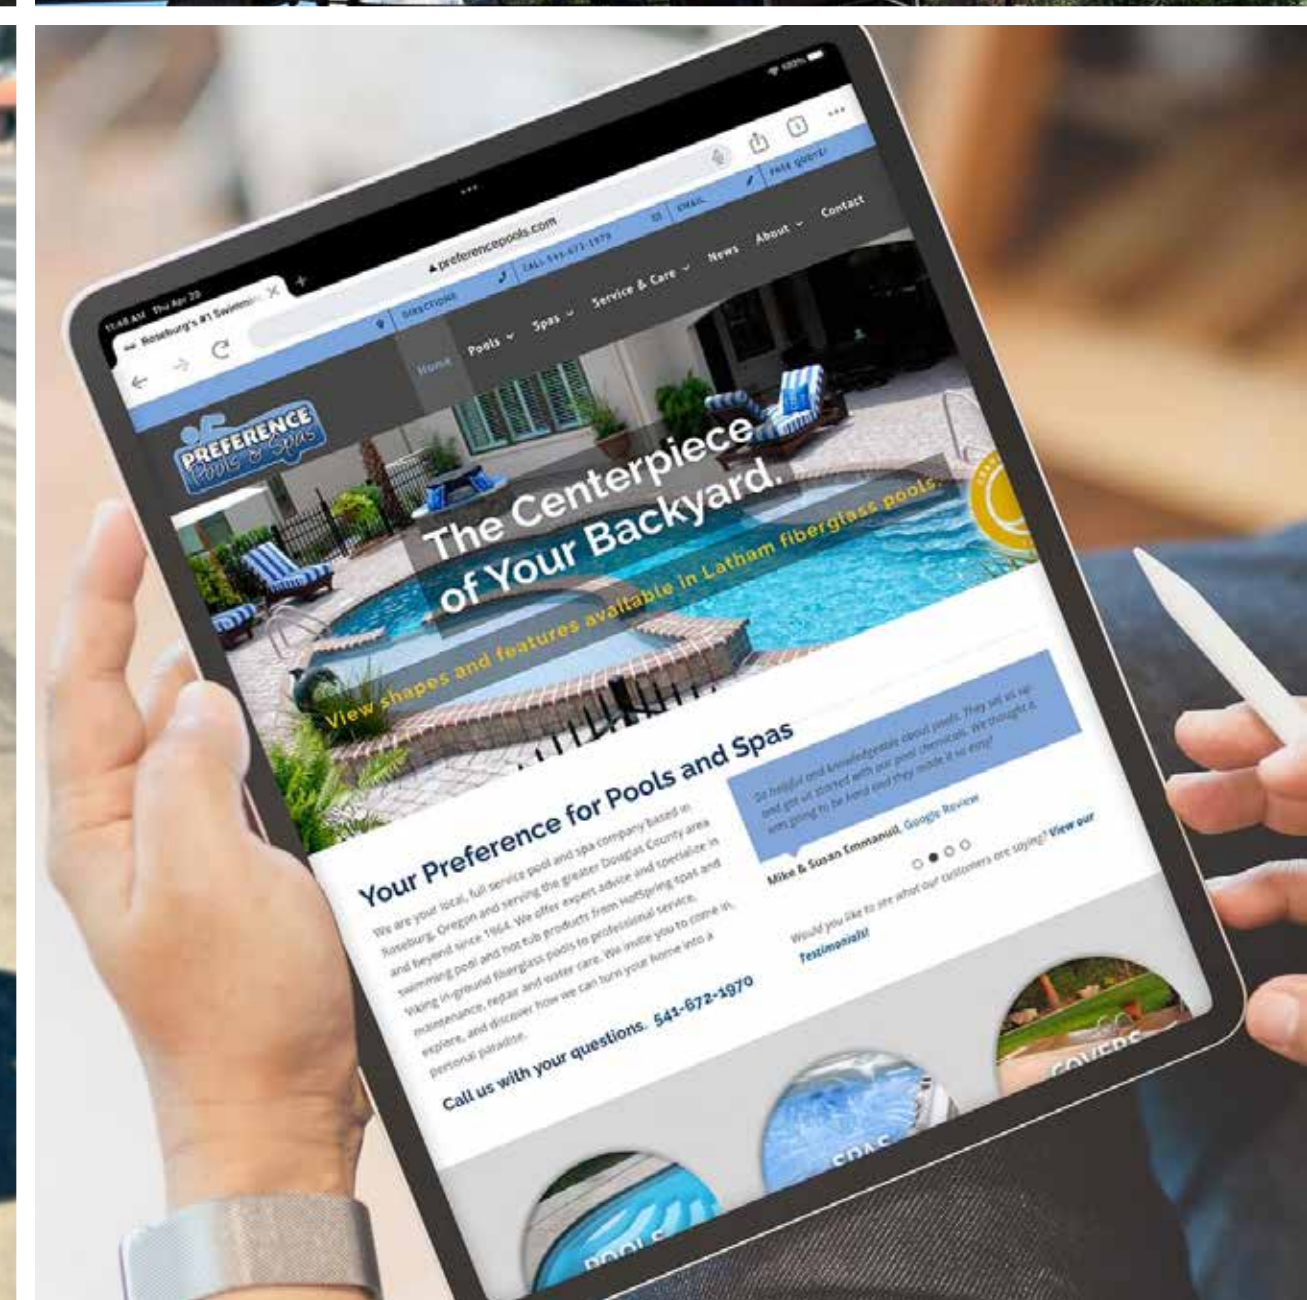

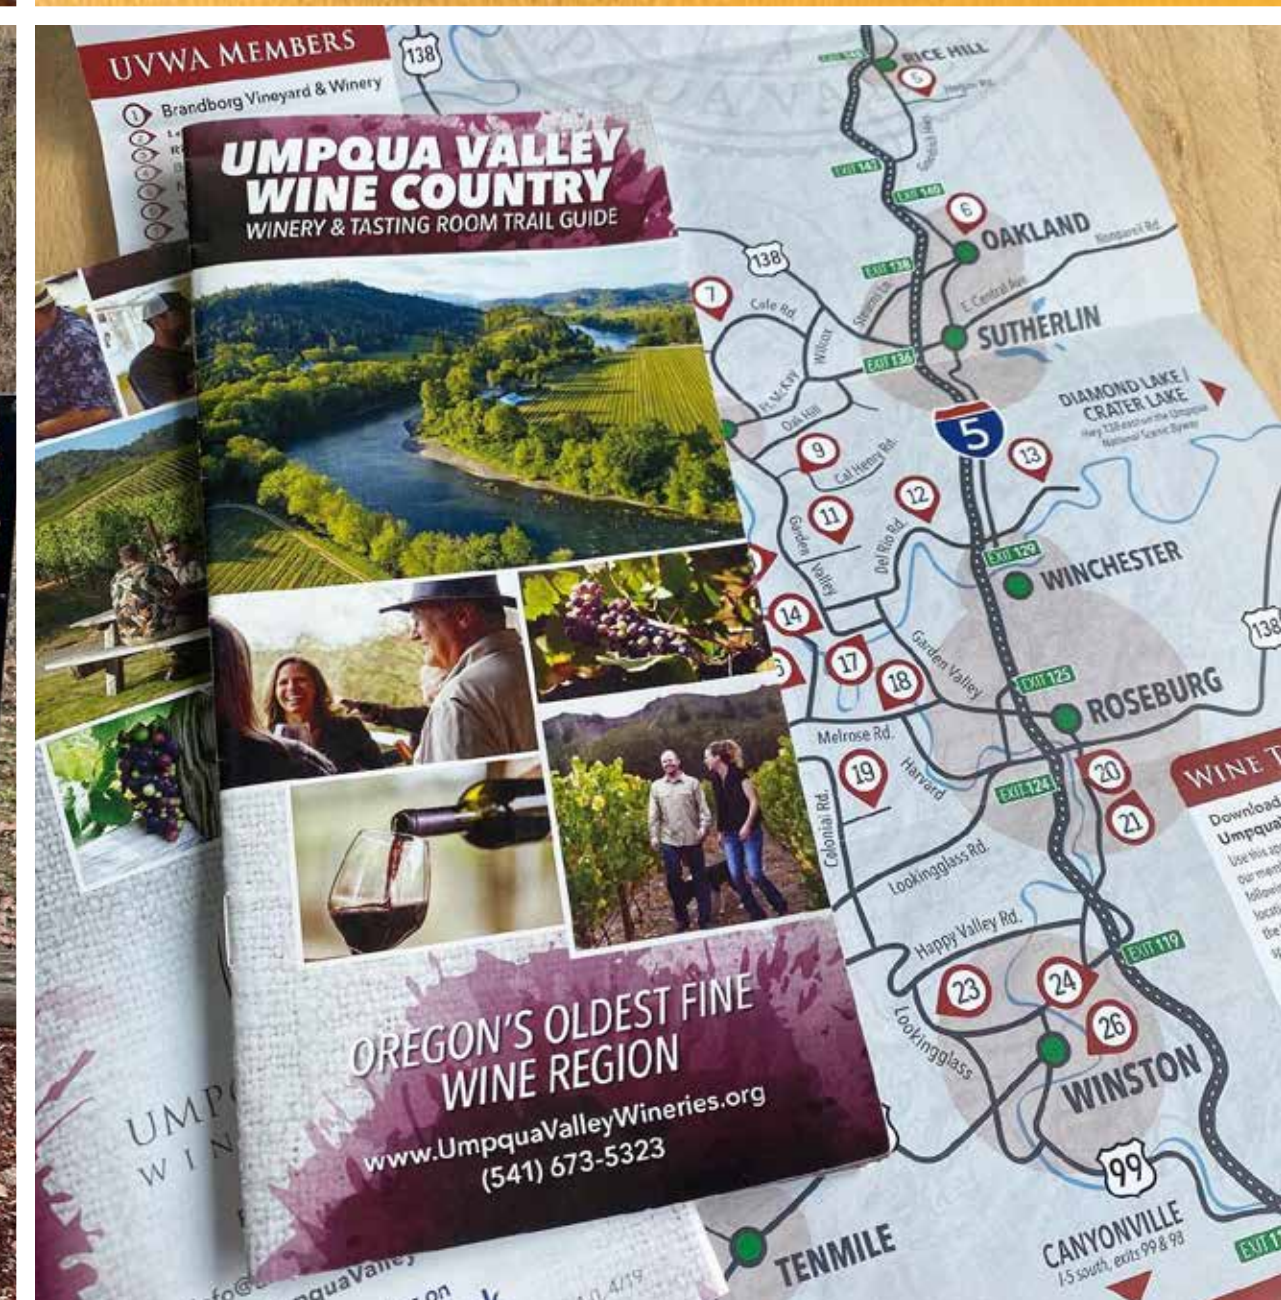

Sincerely,

Glen Simpson

Thank You!
